Will MUSCHAMP

HEAD COACH

4th Year

When athletic director Jeremy Foley began his search for the University of Florida's next head football coach, he knew exactly what he was looking for: someone familiar with the Southeastern Conference, a coach who had competed on the big stage, a relentless recruiter who was familiar with the state of Florida and the SEC and someone with energy and passion. From the very beginning, the search honed in on one person and on December 11, 2010, former Gainesville native Will Muschamp was introduced by Foley as the 23rd head coach in Florida football history.

Muschamp, 42, came to UF after being the coach-in-waiting and defensive coordinator at the University of Texas since November 2008. He brought 16 years of coaching experience with him, including 12 years in the SEC, eight as a coach and four as a player at the University of Georgia. Muschamp also served as defensive coordinator at Auburn University (2006-07) and LSU (2002-04; he was LSU's linebackers coach in 2001) and was a finalist for the 2007 Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach. The son of a football coach, he turned down appointments at West Point and Annapolis to become a four-year letterman at Georgia from 1991-94, where he was voted defensive co-captain as a senior.

Not only did Muschamp, a highly-respected coach among both his peers and his players, bring collegiate and National Football League experience back to Gainesville, he also brought a wealth of big-game experience. Prior to arriving at Florida, he coached in two national championship games, winning the ultimate prize in 2003 as the defensive coordinator at LSU, and coached in a third BCS bowl game following the 2008 season, when Texas won the Fiesta Bowl. In addition to his national championship past, Muschamp has coached in the SEC Championship Game twice and in the Big 12 Championship Game once, coming out on the winning side in each of those three contests.

In his first three seasons at UF, the formula for success for the Gators was to take care of the football, control both lines of scrimmage, have outstanding special teams and play physical defense. Muschamp has led the Gators to two bowl games, including a BCS bowl after the 2012 season and a victory over Ohio State in the TaxSlayer.com Bowl after the 2011 season. The 2012 squad finished No. 3 in the final regular season BCS standings, the third-highest finish in school history and ranked in the top 10 in both the final Associated Press and USA Today/Coaches' Poll. That team won 11 games (just the sixth

"This is a dream come true to be the head coach of the Florida Gators ... I have great memories watching SEC football with my father on Saturdays and playing football in the backyard with my two brothers right here in Gainesville."

WILL MUSCHAMP

"Coach Muschamp put me in a position to have great opportunities. He pushed me to get better every day and his energy is contagious! He's the kind of coach you get excited to play for."

MATT ELAM

2013 First Round NFL Draft Pick of the Baltimore Ravens
2012 All-American at Florida

"Coach Muschamp's energy and passion for the game and his players is unbelievable. I would play for him any day, anytime, anywhere. Florida never breaks."

time in school history), won four of five games against the final BCS top 12 teams and defeated seven bowl-eligible teams in what ranked as the toughest schedule in the nation according to the NCAA. Muschamp was named SEC Coach of the Year in 2012.

Muschamp has had three first-round picks in the NFL Draft in three seasons in Gainesville and overall 14 Gators have been drafted. 15 times his players have been named All-Conference and he has shown a penchant for developing young talent as nine players have been named to the league's All-Freshman team. In the classroom, 71 of his student athletes have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll accolades. The 2013 team had 46 players carry above a 3.0 GPA in the Spring semester, while 41 players currently carry a cumulative GPA above 3.0.

In his five seasons as an SEC defensive coordinator, Muschamp's defenses ranked among the nation's top 10 in total defense every single year, while always maintaining a top-15 rating in scoring defense, including three times inside the top 10.

In four of his eight seasons overall as a Division I defensive coordinator, the high-energy coach's team has allowed less than 100 rushing yards per game and has twice led the nation in rushing defense while yielding less than 75 rushing yards per game. His 2003 LSU defense led the country by allowing 67 yards per game on the ground, the best mark by an SEC team in the 2000s, while Texas gave up just 73.1 yards on the ground in 2009 to pace the nation.

From 2008-10 under Muschamp's guidance, the Texas defense ranked No. 1 in the nation with 119 sacks for 949 yards lost. His unit also ranked in the top 10 nationally during the same time frame in several other major categories, allowing 2.9 yards per rushing attempt (third), 96.7 rushing yards per game (fourth), 297.4 yards per game (seventh), all of which are Big 12 bests during that span. He also helped the Longhorns' defense to top-20 rankings during his tenure at Texas, with 650 first downs allowed (18th) and a 114.3 pass efficiency defense (20th).

In 2009, the Texas Longhorns advanced to the BCS National Championship Game as Muschamp's charges gave up just 73.1 rushing yards per game, the best figure by any BCS school from 2008-10. The Longhorns also led the nation in 2009 in third-down defense (26.5 percent), turnovers created (37, tied with Ohio University) and interceptions (25) as Texas claimed the Big 12 championship in 2009.

Under Muschamp's tutelage at Texas, Brian Orakpo claimed the 2008 Rotary Lombardi Award (lineman of the year), Bronko Nagurski Trophy (most outstanding defensive player) and Ted Hendricks Award (top defensive end), while the Longhorns' defense saw Sergio Kindle become the first player in college football history to be named a finalist for both the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) and the Hendricks Award. Earl Thomas also earned finalist honors for the Jim Thorpe Award in 2009.

In the 2009 and 2010 NFL Drafts, Muschamp had a combined eight players drafted, including seven in the first four rounds and two first-rounders in Orakpo and Thomas.

In a two-year stint as the defensive coordinator at Auburn from 2006-07, Muschamp's defense ranked third in the nation in scoring defense (15.4 points per game) and fourth in the nation pass defense (170.7 pass yards per game). During the same time frame, Auburn ranked third in the SEC in total defense by holding opponents to 295.1 yards per game.

Muschamp's first full-time coaching experience in the SEC came at LSU as the linebackers coach for one season before being elevated to defensive coordinator from 2002-04. His 2003 defense helped the Tigers to the national championship by leading the nation both in scoring defense (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game), while finishing second nationally in pass efficiency defense (89.8) and third in rushing defense (67.0 yards per game). The Tigers allowed just 19 touchdowns all season in 2003, three less than the next closest competitor nationally.

Between his positions at LSU and Auburn, Muschamp spent a season with the NFL's Miami Dolphins in 2005 as Assistant Head Coach for Defense. He helped the Dolphins finish second in the league with 49 sacks, while leading Miami to top-10 finishes with 4.7 yards per play (seventh), 3.7 yards per rush (seventh) and 6.0 yards per pass (ninth).

The 1994 graduate of the University of Georgia moved immediately into coaching following his collegiate playing career, working as a graduate assistant at Auburn from 1995-96, earning his master's degree in 1996. He became a secondary coach at West Georgia (1998) and Eastern Kentucky (1999) before moving on to his first defensive coordinator position at Valdosta State for the 2000 season, where he helped the Blazers to a 10-2 record and the Gulf South Conference championship with an 8-1 league mark.

In his playing career at Georgia, Muschamp earned his way from walk-on to scholarship player by the spring of his redshirt freshman season and eventually was named co-captain for his senior season. He also earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

> "It's very rare that where you come from and where you're going are the exact same place; that boyhood dreams and coaching schemes are one and the same. His old Gainesville friends say Will Muschamp was destined to coach the Gators."

Dillman was named the Director of Strength & Conditioning for the University of Florida Athletic program in January of 2012. No stranger to a championship culture on the gridiron, he oversaw back-to-back national titles as the Director of Strength & Conditioning at Appalachian State in 2006 and 2007 and also served on the staff at LSU for its SEC and BCS Championships in 2003.

As the Head of Physical Conditioning at IMG Academies, Dillman oversaw the strength and conditioning programs for all youth, adult, collegiate and professional athletes who trained at the Academy, including NBA and NFL offseason workouts, NFL Combine training and the Madden Football Academy. Prior to his time at IMG, Dillman was the Director of Strength & Conditioning at his alma mater, Appalachian State University. He has also served as an Assistant Director of Strength & Conditioning at LSU and Louisiana-Monroe.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., Dillman was a football letterman at Elon College before he transferred to Appalachian State, where he completed his football eligibility. He earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science.

Dillman first worked as an Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach at Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2001, working with nine different teams over his tenure with the Warhawks. In 2003, he was hired as an Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach at LSU and helped the Tigers to several notable achievements, including an SEC and BCS National Championship for the football team, Final Four appearances for both the men's and women's basketball teams and a College World Series trip for the baseball team. He also worked with men's and women's tennis and gymnastics.

In 2006, when his alma mater had a position open for the head strength and conditioning position, Dillman jumped at the opportunity. He helped the football program to two-straight Division I-AA national championships and the historic upset of No. 5-ranked Michigan in 2007.

Dillman is a member of the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

10/10 FLORIDA 24, TOLEDO 6

August 31, 2013
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (Attendance: 83,604)
Gainesville, Fla.

Mack Brown, making his first career start, rushed for 112 yards and two scores and Jeff Driskel threw a second-half touchdown pass to fullback Gideon Ajagbe as the Gators extended their run of 24-consecutive victories in season openers with a 24-6 victory over Toledo. Behind Brown, UF out-rushed UT, 262-50, for the game, including 141-33 in the first half. Driskel finished 17-of-22 for 153 yards, including the 4-yard toss to Ajagbe that pushed the Gators to an 18-point edge early in the final period. It was the combination of Driskel and Brown who got things started for UF after defensive end Ronald Powell, seeing his first action since suffering a serious knee injury in the 2012 Orange & Blue Game, sacked Toledo quarterback Terrance Owens on the Rockets' opening possession. Florida took its first possession of the game at the 16-yard line and drove 84 yards in 17 plays to score on a 1-yard run by Brown. Along the way, Brown carried five times for 38 yards, including a 23-yard run. The two teams traded field goals -- with Florida redshirt freshman Austin Hardin kicking a 24-yarder and Toledo's Jeremiah Detmer good from 44 yards -- to make the score 10-3 in the second quarter. A 29-yard run from running back Valdez Showers, who was switched from safety during the preseason, was the big hitter on a 10-play, 83-yard drive that Brown capped by dragging a handful of Rockets into the end zone on a 14-yard run that had the Gators up 17-3 at halftime. Detmer's 23-yard field goal at 10:03 of the third period drew UT within 17-6, but an interception and 15-yard return by freshman cornerback Vernon Hargreaves III gave the Gators a first down at the Rockets' 23. Five plays later, Driskel hit a wide-open Ajagbe off play-action on third-and-goal for the final score of the game.

RV/24 MIAMI 21, 12/9 FLORIDA 16

September 7, 2013
Sun Life Stadium (Attendance: 76,968)
Miami Gardens, Fla.

Florida fell to Miami 21-16 in their much-anticipated showdown at Sun Life Stadium. UF quarterback Jeff Driskel's second interception of the game came on a third-and-2 from the UM 18-yard line with 6:42 to play. The possession marked the sixth for the Gators that reached inside of the Miami 20 -- and the fourth time coming away with nothing. Duke Johnson's 2-yard touchdown run following a fumble by Driskel at the Gators' 5-yard line -- the Gators' fifth turnover of the game -- gave Miami a cushion. Florida responded with a quick drive, capped by a 21-yard touchdown pass from Driskel to Solomon Patton with 2:08 left in regulation, but an onside kick came up short. Florida got the ball back with :28 left at its own 20 but was unable to move the ball. A 52-yard touchdown from Stephen Morris to Phillip Dorsett had given the Hurricanes an eight-point lead at 14-6. After that, Florida mounted a series of drives -- UF outgained UM by 100 yards on offense and held the ball for 13 more minutes -- but each ended in self-destruction. The Gators had a chance to close the margin after a 43-yard pass from Driskel to Patton helped move UF inside the UM 10. But, one play after overthrowing Quinton Dunbar in the end zone for what would have been an easy touchdown, Driskel was under pressure and tried to force a throw that was intercepted at the goal line. Miami had taken a 7-0 lead midway through the first quarter when Morris threw a 7-yard touchdown to Herb Waters. UM capitalized on a series of early mistakes by UF, including a fumble by Matt Jones that Miami converted into the score on its opening drive. Down 7-0, Florida got some instant life when cornerback Loucheiz Purifoy blocked Pat O'Donnell's punt, with the Gators recovering at the 10. Two plays later, Driskel sprinted untouched into the end zone off a zone-read option play, picking up a block from fullback Hunter Joyer. Florida did not tie the game, though. The Gators went for a trick-play attempt at a 2-point conversion, spreading the field and having Tyler Murphy throw a pass to Trey Burton, but the Hurricanes tackled Burton short of the goal line. On Miami's next possession, the Hurricanes went 84 yards in just six plays, with the big play to Dorsett. From there, the UF defense stepped it up and kept the UM offense on the sidelines with three straight three-and-outs. The Hurricanes ran six plays for four yards in the second quarter.

19/18 FLORIDA 31, TENNESSEE 17

September 21, 2013
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (Attendance: 90,074)
Gainesville, Fla.

Backup quarterback Tyler Murphy accounted for a pair of touchdowns and the Florida defense forced six turnovers as the Gators defeated Tennessee 31-17 in the SEC opener for both teams. The win was the Gators' ninth straight in the series. Murphy, who entered after starter Jeff Driskel left the game in the first quarter, had never attempted a pass in college. He finished 8-of-14 passing for 134 yards, and added 84 yards rushing on 10 carries, including a fourth-quarter touchdown to put UF ahead 31-10. The Gators finished with 382 yards of total offense, but it was their defense that set the tone behind four interceptions and two fumble recoveries. The Gators led 17-7 at the half, thanks to a 2-yard touchdown run from Mack Brown with 37 seconds to go in the second quarter. The Vols got a field goal on their first drive of third period from Michael Palardy. The points came after UT coach Butch Jones opted for a quarterback switch, benching Nathan Peterman (4-of-11, 5 yards, 2 interceptions) in favor of Justin Worley, the junior backup. UF was led by a spectacular opening two quarters from its defense that forced four turnovers and held the Volunteers to 31 total yards on 25 plays. Tennessee's only points in the first half came when cornerback Devaun Swafford returned a Driskel interception 62 yards. Driskel injured his ankle on the play and was replaced by Murphy. Brown's touchdown was set up off a tipped-ball interception by junior defensive tackle Darious Cummings, whose 30-yard return set the Gators up on the UT 40. Seven plays later, after a crucial third-down run by Murphy to move the chains, Brown took an inside handoff and broke it outside for the score and 10-point lead. Earlier in the half, Solomon Patton took a pass from Murphy, weaved around two UT defensive players and raced 52 yards for a touchdown and 10-7 lead. That play came after UF defensive back Brian Poole came down with an interception to set the UF offense up at its own 44.

20/19 FLORIDA 24, KENTUCKY 7

September 28, 2013
Commonwealth Stadium (Attendance: 62,076)
Lexington, Ky.

Tyler Murphy passed for a touchdown and ran for another while tailback Matt Jones rushed for a career-high 176 yards and a score as the Gators defeated Kentucky 24-7 and captured their SEC road opener. The win marked UF's 27th-straight in the series, dating back to 1987. Making his first career start, Murphy completed 15-of-18 passes, including his first 13 attempts, for 156 yards, including a 9-yard scoring strike to Trey Burton in the second quarter, and later in the period added a 5-yard TD run on an option keeper. Murphy made one mistake in the third period, when he was intercepted by linebacker Josh Forrest, who returned the ball 39 yards to the UF 38. Five plays later, though, UK quarterback Maxwell Smith's heave into the end zone was intercepted by leaping true freshman cornerback Vernon Hargreaves, his third pick of the season. UK's lone points of the night came in the first quarter, when the Wildcats executed a perfect fake field goal and placekicker Joe Mansour ran 25 yards for a touchdown that tied the game at 7-all. The Gators scored the game's next 17 points, finishing with 402 yards of total offense. The UF defense held the Wildcats to 173 yards, sacked UK quarterbacks five times and limited the 'Cats to 1-for-8 on third down. Murphy's touchdown run late in the second quarter capped a nine-play, 62-yard drive, highlighted by a 19-yard completion to Burton. His touchdown pass came two plays after Jones had a 67-yard run. After a holding penalty on the opening kickoff stuck the Gators in a hole at their own 7, Murphy took his team 93 yards in 13 plays to give the Gators a 7-0 lead. The drive was the longest TD march -- in yards, plays and time consumed (7:47) -- for UF on the season to that point and was capped when Jones went around left end for his 2-yard scoring run on third-and-goal. Jones went on to carry 28 times on the night. Kentucky reached UF territory twice in the second half, but was turned away by Hargreaves the first time (third quarter) and on downs the second time (fourth quarter), with the Gators taking control and behind Jones basically ran out the clock.

18/19 FLORIDA 30, ARKANSAS 10

October 5, 2013
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (Attendance: 90,043)
Gainesville, Fla.

In the first night game at Florida Field in two years, Solomon Patton turned a pair of receptions into long touchdowns and Loucheiz Purifoy returned an interception 42 yards for a score to lead the Gators to a 30-10 win over Arkansas. The win was Florida's 10th-straight at home and kept the Gators tied with Georgia atop the SEC Eastern Division standings. Tyler Murphy completed 16-of-22 passes for 240 yards and scores of 51 and 38 to Patton, plus a late shovel-pass toss to Valdez Showers. The UF defense got off to a slow start, but stiffened for the final three quarters and put the clamps on the Razorbacks' high-powered rushing attack. The Hogs came into the game averaging 237 yards per game on the ground, second-best in the league. Against the Gators, armed with the nation's second-best run defense, UA gained 111 yards rushing on 29 attempts. The Razorbacks led 7-3 and faced and third-and-6 late in the first quarter when Purifoy read quarterback Brandon Allen all the way and stepped in front of his pass -- for the first interception of his career -- and followed a calvary of UF defenders to the end zone at the 8:33 mark of the second period to put the Gators up 10-7. That's where the score stood late in the half, when Murphy was flushed from the pocket, found an open passing lane and roped a ball toward Patton about 20 yards downfield. Patton came back for the ball, wheeled around and sped off down the sideline for a spectacular touchdown. Then he did it again in the second half. Patton's second touchdown came at the 11:23 mark of the third period and capped a seven-play, 75-yard drive to give the Gators a three-score advantage. Like before, he came back to the ball to help Murphy find a target and outraced the Razorbacks to the end zone. Arkansas had taken a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter when freshman tailback Jonathan Williams had a 4-yard touchdown run. In the first quarter, the Hogs cranked out 81 rushing yards against the nation's No. 2 rush defense, which came in allowing just 53.5 yards per game and 2.4 yards per carry. From the second quarter on, however, Arkansas managed just 155 yards of total offense, only 30 on the ground.

10/11 LSU 17, 17/17 FLORIDA 6

October 12, 2013
Tiger Stadium (Attendance: 92,980)
Baton Rouge, La.

The 10th-ranked Tigers beat the Gators, 17-6, in their SEC showdown at "Death Valley." Fullback J.C. Copeland scored on a 1-yard run in the first quarter and wildcat quarterback Anthony Jennings added another 1-yarder in the second period. The only scores Florida managed on the day were two field goals from Frankie Velez, a walk-on from Ocala, Fla., who connected on both his attempts, from 44 and 27 yards. For the game, Florida managed just 240 yards of total offense; 94 in the first half. Tyler Murphy went 15-of-27 for just 115 yards in facing his best opponent yet and was sacked four times by the LSU defense. One of UF's lone bright spots on the day came courtesy of freshman tailback Kelvin Taylor, who replaced the injured Matt Jones and carried 10 times for 52 yards. LSU's two scoring drives went for 60 yards on 14 plays and 62 yards in eight. LSU quarterback Zach Mettenberger hit some big third-down passes against the UF secondary and also benefitted from key third-down pass interference penalties on both TD drives. For the game, the Tigers totaled 327 yards -- far below their season average of 488.8 -- with well over half (200) coming in the first half when the Tigers went up 14-3. The score could have been worse, but another LSU drive was stopped when Mettenberger fumbled a pass attempt -- without being hit -- and defensive tackle Leon Orr recovered at the the Florida 28. The Tigers finished with a season-low 17 points after coming in averaging 45.5 a game. LSU took its 7-3 lead after the Gators jumped on the scoreboard first. Murphy marched the UF offense 60 yards on 14 plays, converting a pair of third downs along the way, before the drive stalled at the Tigers' 27. From there, Florida coach Will Muschamp bypassed a fourth-and-1 for a field-goal attempt, which Velez converted.

14/14 MISSOURI 36, 22/22 FLORIDA 17

October 19, 2013
Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium (Attendance: 67,124)
Columbia, Mo.

Missouri's Maty Mauk threw for 295 yards and placekicker Andrew Baggett tied a school record with five field goals as the Tigers beat the Gators, 36-17, at Faurot Field. The Gators gained just 151 yards of total offense. Tyler Murphy was under pressure the entire game, with the Gators run game struggling (31 carries, 59 yards) and the offense providing no time in pass protection. Murphy was sacked six times and hit a bunch more. Florida's best offensive output of the game came on a six-play, 70-yard drive that true freshman tailback Kelvin Taylor capped with a 20-yard touchdown run, the first score of his career. Taylor finished with 74 yards on 12 carries. The rest of UF's rushing attack totaled 15 yards on 19 carries. Mauk, meanwhile, completed 18 of his 36 throws, including a 20-yard touchdown on the game's second play from scrimmage and also had a 17-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter. The Gators answered Mizzou's first touchdown with a 23-yard field goal from Frankie Velez, thanks to a muffed punt by MU return man Marcus Murphy. Baggett canceled out Velez's field goal with a 43-yarder of his own. That score was set up after UF true freshman wideout Demarcus Robinson let a wide-open pass from Murphy skip through his arms and into the hands of MU cornerback Aarion Penton, who returned it seven yards to the UF 46. The score was 13-3 at halftime, but UF's Solomon Patton started the second half with a 100-yard kickoff return that quickly made it a 13-10 game. Undeterred, Mauk hit wideout Jimmie Hunt for a 52-yard completion on Mizzou's second offensive play of the half, and three plays later Josey scored on a 6-yard run on third-and-5 to take the lead back to 10. Baggett's third field goal, a 39-yarder, pushed the margin to 23-10, but the Gators put together their best drive of the game going six plays and 70 yards, with Taylor dashing in from 20 yards out to make the score 23-17. But, Josey took off on a 50-yard run on MU's next possession to set up another field goal from Baggett. His fifth came early in the fourth quarter.

GEORGIA 23, FLORIDA 20

November 2, 2013
EverBank Field (Attendance: 84,693)
Jacksonville, Fla.

Georgia started fast and ultimately had enough to hold off a Florida rally for a 23-20 win in their annual SEC series at EverBank Field. UGA quarterback Aaron Murray passed for 258 yards and a score, while tailback Todd Gurley rushed for 100 yards and scored twice as the Bulldogs defeated the Gators a third-straight time for the first time in 24 years. The Murray-Gurley combo helped the Bulldogs build a 23-3 halftime lead after cranking out 355 yards in the first two quarters. UF managed to battle back into the game by scoring 17-straight points to open the second half. The game took a huge momentum swing early in the third period when Florida defensive tackle Leon Orr picked up a Murray pass, dropped by tight end Arthur Lynch in the backfield and ruled a lateral. Orr returned the ball to the UGA 16 and, three plays later, UF tailback Mack Brown scored around left end on a 5-yard touchdown run. That made the score 23-10. On Georgia's next offensive possession, UF cornerback Loucheiz Purifoy sacked Murray in the end zone for a safety. After the Bulldogs' free kick, Gators quarterback Tyler Murphy moved his unit 50 yards in five plays, first racing 25 yards to the UGA 14, then going 14 yards for a touchdown. His two-point conversion pass to tight end Clay Burton drew UF to 23-20 with 14:20 to go. Four minutes later, the Gators were back in Georgia territory with a first down, but went three-and-out, with the third-down play a 14-yard sack. Florida punted the ball away at the 8:17 mark and never got it back, as Georgia ran the clock out with the game's final 18 plays.

VANDERBILT 34, FLORIDA 17

November 9, 2013
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (Attendance: 88,004)
Gainesville, Fla.

The Commodores built an early lead and it proved to be too much for the Gators to overcome, as they lost 34-17 in their Homecoming game at The Swamp. The loss was the fourth straight for UF. The Commodores, meanwhile, snapped a 22-game losing streak in the series and won for the first time in Gainesville since 1945. Florida outgunned Vandy in total yards for the game, 344-183, but four UF turnovers were killer. Tyler Murphy finished 30-of-46 for a career-high 305 yards, throwing a late touchdown pass of 11 yards to true freshman Ahmad Fulwood, but he also threw three interceptions and fumbled once. Commodores quarterback Patton Robinette threw for just 57 yards, Seymour ran for only 62, but Vandy didn't need any more. Vandy scored on the game's opening possession, the third-straight UF opponent to get on the board first, as the Commodores drove 14 plays and 62 yards to a 31-yard field goal from Carey Spear. After that, three Murphy interceptions in minus-territory set up a trio of Vandy touchdowns on drives of just 10, 22 and 4 yards, as the Commodores seized a 24-3 barely two minutes into the second half. The only points the Gators could muster through the game's first 26 1/2 minutes came from a 23-yard field goal by senior Brad Phillips.

11/12 SOUTH CAROLINA 19, FLORIDA 14

November 16, 2013
Williams-Brice Stadium (Attendance: 83,853)
Columbia, S.C.

Florida quarterback Skyler Mornhinweg saw the first action of his career after getting the start in Columbia, but one fourth-quarter pass spoiled his debut. Mornhinweg, the redshirt freshman summoned when starting quarterback Tyler Murphy was a pre-game scratch, tried to force a throw under duress with the game very much in the balance. The ball was intercepted by South Carolina cornerback Jimmy Legree and the 12th-ranked Gamecocks held off the Gators, 19-14. USC quarterback Connor Shaw passed for 213 yards, including a key second-half touchdown strike, and Elliott Fry booted four field goals, including two in the fourth quarter, as the the Gamecocks won their 16th-straight home game. UF freshman tailback Kelvin Taylor rushed 21 times for a career-best 96 yards and two touchdowns that capped two long drives. Mornhinweg completed 10-of-13 passes for 107 yards and the one interception, the only turnover of the game by either team. The Gators led 14-13 heading into the final period, but field goals from Fry of 23 and 45 yards proved to be the difference. The Gamecocks scored the only points of the second half after UF took a 14-6 edge into the locker room. Fry's last field goal came with 2:16 to go in the game and gave the Gators a chance to win it with a long drive -- but it had to end with a touchdown. On first-and-10 from the USC 48, Mornhinweg was flushed to his right and toward the sidelines. Instead of chucking the ball out of bounds, he lobbed it down the right sideline, short of intended receiver Quinton Dunbar and into the waiting arms of the Legree.

GEORGIA SOUTHERN 26, FLORIDA 20

November 23, 2013
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (Attendance: 82,459)
Gainesville, Fla.

Georgia Southern and its vaunted triple option rushed for 429 yards to upset the Florida Gators 26-20 handing the home team its sixth-straight loss. The win was the first by GSU in 21 tries against FBS-classfication teams and officially eliminated UF from any chance of being bowl-eligible. Eagles tailback Jerrick McKinnon rushed for 125 yards and a touchdown, quarterback Kevin Eillison ran for 118 with a score and Williams Banks added 94 yards and a TD for GSU, which came in averaging 353 yards rushing per game. The Eagles averaged 7.5 yards per play and attempted just three passes, all incomplete. The Gators managed just 279 yards of total offense, with redshirt freshman Skyler Mornhinweg completing 14-of-25 passes for 122 yards and two touchdowns, both to senior wideout Solomon Patton. UF trailed 20-10 going into the final period after Banks scored on a 3-yard run with 32 seconds to go in the third quarter. The Gators, though, got a 22-yard field goal from Frankie Velez three minutes into the fourth quarter. After the UF defense forced a punt, Mornhinweg threw the first deep ball of his young UF career, hitting Patton for a 46-yard touchdown pass. Velez's extra point tied the game with 5:41 to go. Florida's defense had a chance to get the ball back for the offense, but on 3rd-and-2 Banks went up the gut for a 53-yard run. Three plays later, McKinnon went around right end and scored for a 14-yard touchdown to give the Eagles the lead with 2:44 to go. The point-after attempt was missed. The Gators needed a touchdown and point-after to win it. Mornhinweg marched UF to the Georgia Southern 17 with eight seconds to play. His fourth-down pass near the goal line for Patton was batted to the ground, setting off a celebration by the visiting team.

2/2 FLORIDA STATE 37, FLORIDA 7

November 30, 2013
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field (Attendance: 90,454)
Gainesville, Fla.

Florida State quarterback Jameis Winston passed for 327 yards and three touchdowns, with wideout Kelvin Benjamin on the receiving end for 212 yards and all three scores, as the No. 2 Seminoles rolled over the Gators 37-7 at The Swamp. Winston completed 19-of-31 passes, with Benjamin catching nine throws and surpassing the record for most receiving yards against a UF defense, a mark set previously by Mississippi State's Danny Knight (208) in 1982. FSU tailback Devonta Freeman rushed for a touchdown and Robert Aguayo kicked three field goals for the Seminoles, who completed an unbeaten season and would go on to win the BCS National Championship. UF quarterback Skyler Mornhinweg, making his third career start, completed 20-of-25 passes for 115 yards. He threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to fullback Hunter Joyer on the fourth play of the fourth quarter to get Florida on the board and made the score 27-7. The Gators finished with just 193 yards of total offense. Before the lone UF scoring drive (14 plays, 83 yards), the Gators had managed just 102 yards and three first downs their first seven possessions. Half those yards came on one play -- a 50-yard run by senior Trey Burton, playing in his final game in a UF uniform, out of the Wildcat formation. It would be Burton's last series for UF, as he left with an injury and could not return, seriously limiting the game plan that the Gators entered the game with. FSU's touchdown drives in the first half went for 96 and 74 yards, with Winston hitting Benjamin with scoring strikes of 45 and 29 yards. Their third-quarter drive went 84 yards in five plays, capped with Freeman walking into the end zone for an 11-yard score. Their fourth-quarter TD march was a 79-yarder and came right after the Gators got on the scoreboard.

2013 SEASON NOTES

- The Gators had four players earn postseason All-SEC honors. True freshman Vernon Hargreaves III was named first-team by both the media and coaches, while Dante Fowler, Jr. and Loucheiz Purifoy were second-team selections by the media. Solomon Patton was a second-team selection by the coaches as a return specialist. In addition, Hargreaves, running back Kelvin Taylor and punter Johnny Townsend were named to the SEC All-Freshman team.
- Florida's offense had a different starting lineup in all 12 games this season. Only five Gators started every game: senior center Jonotthan Harrison, redshirt junior offensive lineman Max Garcia, redshirt junior wide receiver Quinton Dunbar, redshirt junior safety Cody Riggs and sophomore defensive end/BUCK Dante Fowler.
- The Gators had three quarterbacks start multiple games this season: Jeff Driskel (3), Tyler Murphy (6), Skyler Mornhinweg (3). The last time UF had three quarterbacks with multiple starts in the same season was 1979, when Florida used a combination of Johnell Brown, Tim Groves, Larry Ochab and Tyrone Young at quarterback.
- Of the 22 starters in the 2013 Sugar Bowl, the Gators had just six of those players available for the season finale against Florida State: Jon Harrison, Jon Halapio, Clay Burton (started two tight ends), Darrin Kitchens, Loucheiz Purifoy and Jaylen Watkins. In all, UF played 55 players in the Sugar Bowl last year - less than half (26) were available a year later.
- The Gators were hit hard by injuries in 2013, with 15 players suffering season-ending injuries, including 10 starters.
- Overall, UF had 25 different players miss a combined 126 games.
- For the first time since 1979, the Gators finished with a losing record. During that span of 34 seasons, every other school in the Southeastern Conference had at least four losing seasons.

- UF had 89 penalties on the year, its fewest in a season since 1990 (87).
- The Gators held opponents to 275 yards of total offense or less in 6 of 12 games this season.
- Florida allowed 27 touchdowns this year, the sixth-fewest in the nation (17 rushing/9 passing/1 return).
- UF's 192 first downs allowed, third-fewest in the nation, is its fewest in a season since allowing 147 in 2001. The UF defense forced 36 3-and-outs in 137 drives, meaning nearly 26 percent of opponent drives did not gain a first down.
- True freshman Vernon Hargreaves III was second in the SEC in passes defended (1.17 per game) and tied for eighth in the league in interceptions (3). His 11 pass breakups equal the most by a true freshman in school history, matching the total Janoris Jenkins had in 2008. The total is tied for ninth-most in school history for a single season.
- UF had 17 different players that caught a pass and five players had 15 or more receptions.
- The Gators' had two players with 100-yard rushing games: Mack Brown (112-Toledo) and Matt Jones (176-Kentucky).
- Three of UF's receivers finished with 38-or-more receptions on the season (Solomon Patton-44, Quinton Dunbar-40, Trey Burton-38) and all three had over 440 receiving yards. It was the first time since the 2001 season (4 players: Caldwell, Gaffney, Gillespie, Jacobs) that UF has had three players with 38+ catches in a season.
- On the season, the wide receivers accounted for 148 of the team's 199 receptions (74 percent). In 2012, the group totaled 67 catches out of 183 total for UF (36 percent).
- Quinton Dunbar set a school record against South Carolina, catching a pass for the 26th game in a row (streak now at 28 games). He surpassed Carlos Alvarez's mark of 25-straight games back in 1969-71.
- Solomon Patton became the first Florida wide receiver to have six receiving touchdowns since Riley Cooper had nine in the 2009 season. Patton also had two games with two touchdown catches (Ark, Ga. Southern), becoming the first UF player to have two games with two touchdowns in the same season since Chad Jackson in 2005 (Wyoming, Kentucky).
- Patton set a school record averaging 29.2 yards per kick return - ranking first in the SEC and 7th nationally. His career kickoff return average of 27.7 yards on 39 returns is a school record for players with 30 or more returns.
- UF's kick return coverage was equally impressive, ranking third nationally allowing just 16.4 yards per return.
- Florida's time of possession per game of 33:49 was the highest in school history since the stat has been kept starting in 1986.

3 FLORIDA 52
1 FLORIDA STATE 20

January 2, 1997
Louisiana Superdome (Attendance: 78,344)
New Orleans, La.

The third-ranked Gators lay claim to their first national championship as they stripped top-ranked Florida State's hopes for a perfect season with a 52-20 victory before a Superdome Sugar Bowl record crowd of 78,344 and an ABC national television audience in the 1997 Nokia Sugar Bowl. With Ohio State's 20-17 defeat of undefeated and second ranked Arizona State the day before in the Rose Bowl, Florida was voted national champions in both major polls for the first time in school history.

FSU opened with a 33-yard pass from quarterback Thad Busby to Andre Cooper, but the Gator defense snuffed out the Seminoles on 4th-and-one from the UF 23-yard line. Senior quarterback Danny Wuerffel took over, marching Florida down the field with five passes for 73 yards, capped by a 9-yard touchdown pass junior wide receiver Ike Hilliard. Bart Edmiston added a 32-yard field goal and the Gators led 10-3 after the first quarter.

Florida, which worked out of the shotgun for much of the game, drove 73 yards in 26 seconds as junior tailback Fred Taylor punched it in from two yards out to put UF ahead 17-3, marking the first time FSU trailed by more that 7 points the entire season. The Seminoles closed to 17-10 only to watch the Gators' shotgun offense respond with a 65-yard drive in just four plays as Hilliard added another touchdown. Florida State managed to respond with a quick drive of their own, cutting the UF lead to 24-17 on a 12-yard run by Warrick Dunn with under a minute left in the half.

Scott Bentley trimmed the Gator lead to 24-20 on a 45-yard field goal less than five minutes into the second half, but the Seminoles would not score again. Florida sealed the victory by scoring the final 28 points of the game, a run that began with Hilliard's third touchdown reception of the game on an 8-yard catch from Wuerffel. Wuerffel then scrambled 16 yards for a score to put UF up 38-20 with 13 seconds left in the third quarter, and Terry Jackson added two fourth quarter touchdowns, including a 42-yarder, for the final margin.

The Gator defense was strong from start to finish, stopping the Seminoles on downs at the UF 23 on the game's opening possession and holding FSU to just 42 net yards rushing total, just two yards shy of the UF bowl record set against Baylor in the 1960 Gator Bowl. The Seminoles were successful on only five of 18 third down conversions, with two Gator interceptions. The Gator special teams also played well, with sophomore punter Robby Stevenson pinning the Seminoles inside the five-yard line on two different occasions while averaging 48.1 yards per punt.

The 38-point margin of victory was the largest against a No.1-ranked team in bowl history and marked Florida's first-ever victory over the nation's top-ranked team.

1 OHIO STATE 14

January 8, 2007
University of Phoenix Stadium (Attendance: 74,628)
Glendale, Ariz.

Senior quarterback Chris Leak threw for a touchdown and senior running back DeShawn Wynn ran for another score to lead the second-ranked University of Florida football team to a 41-14 victory over Ohio State in the Tostitos BCS National Championship Game, earning the Gators their second-ever national football championship. With the win, Florida became the first school in NCAA Division I history to capture national titles in football and men's basketball during the same calendar year, having earned its first title on the hardcourt by defeating UCLA in April.

Ohio State struck first when Ted Ginn, Jr., returned the game's opening kickoff 93 yards for a touchdown. The Gators tied the game at 7-7 when Leak connected with senior wide receiver Dallas Baker for a 14-yard score just 4:13 later. Leak completed 5-of-5 passes for 35 yards on the drive, which was set up by a 33-yard kick return by freshman running back Brandon James and a subsequent 15-yard facemask penalty against the Buckeyes.

The Gators took a lead they would not relinquish at the 5:51 mark of the first quarter when freshman wide receiver Percy Harvin took an option pitch from Leak and ran four yards for his third touchdown of the season. Senior kicker Chris Hetland converted the point-after attempt to give UF a 14-7 advantage.

After senior cornerback Reggie Lewis intercepted Ohio State quarterback Troy Smith with 2:49 left to play in the opening quarter, Wynn plowed into the endzone from two yards out to cap a 10-play, 71-yard drive that gave Florida a 21-7 lead. The score was Wynn's sixth of the season and the 25th of his UF career, moving him into a tie with Buford Long for sixth on the all-time school list.

An 18-yard touchdown run by Antonio Pittman cut the Gators' lead to 21-14 with just over 13 minutes left to play in the first half, but Hetland connected on a 43-yard field goal – his longest of the season – to push Florida's advantage to 24-14 with six minutes remaining in the half. Hetland added a 40-yard field goal to increase the Gators' lead to 27-14.

On the first play of Ohio State's ensuing possession, junior defensive end Jarvis Moss sacked Smith, forcing a fumble that sophomore defensive end Derrick Harvey picked up and returned to the Buckeyes' five-yard line. On third-and-goal from the OSU one-yard line, freshman quarterback Tim Tebow hit junior wide receiver Andre Caldwell for a scoring strike that gave the Gators a 34-14 lead at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter, Tebow put the Gators ahead, 41-14, with a one-yard plunge at the 10:30 mark of the final period. On the play, Tebow tied Jimmy Fisher's single-season school record for touchdown runs by a quarterback, set in 1979, with eight on the campaign. That touchdown would prove to be the final score of the night, propelling the Gators to the 41-14 win.

UF's victory over the Buckeyes improved their mark to 3-1 all-time in BCS bowl games, and stood as their first win over a top-ranked team since defeating Florida State in Gainesville on Nov. 22, 1997. Florida Head Coach Urban Meyer became just the seventh coach in NCAA history to guide a team to a national championship in his first or second year at a school.

2 FLORIDA 24
1 OKLAHOMA 14

January 8, 2009
Dolphin Stadium (Attendance: 78,468)
Miami, Fla.

Winning their second national championship in three years - and third overall - the No. 2 Gators defeated the No. 1 Oklahoma Sooners, 24-14, in front of a record football crowd of 78,468 at the FedEx BCS National Championship Thursday at Dolphin Stadium. Florida completes its national championship run with a 13-1 record on the season, tying a school record for wins (13), last achieved during UF's 2006 national championship run when it finished 13-1 as well. Oklahoma finishes its season 12-2 overall.

The 2009 FedEx BCS National Championship win marks Florida's fourth BCS bowl win all-time, as the Gators improved their bowl record to 3-1 under Head Coach Urban Meyer.

Gator senior wide receiver Louis Murphy, junior wide receiver/running back Percy Harvin and redshirt junior wide receiver David Nelson were touchdown targets of junior quarterback Tim Tebow, who threw for 231 yards (18-of-30) and racked up 109 yards on the ground on 22 carries in the win over Oklahoma. Senior kicker Jonathan Phillips tacked on three more points, connecting on a fourth quarter field goal to help lead the Gators over the Sooners.

After recording the first scoreless first quarter since the 1999 BCS National Championship (Florida State vs. Tennessee) and holding Oklahoma to their first scoreless first quarter all season, the Gators opened up the national championship game, finding the end zone first on a 20-yard pass from Tebow to Murphy, marking Murphy's 27th straight game with a catch. Tebow's connection with Murphy marked the first time the Sooners have allowed their opponent to score first this season, while Phillips' extra point brought the Gators ahead 7-0.

It took a 2:13 drive for the Sooners to answer two and a half minutes later when quarterback Sam Bradford hit Oklahoma wide receiver Jermaine Gresham with a six-yard touchdown reception. OU drove 65 yards for the score to bring the margin 7-7 all.

Sophomore Torrey Davis led the Gator defense on the Sooners' next possession, rallying for a key fourth-and-one stop that prevented the Sooners from jumping ahead after a Tebow interception. Harvin capitalized on the momentum with a 46-yard run that brought the Gators to midfield.

While UF punted on the possession, the Gator defense sustained on the Sooners' ensuing drive, ending an OU drive on Florida's three-yard line when junior Major Wright intercepted a Bradford pass. Wright's pick was UF's 25th of the season, a single season school record for team interceptions, and took both teams to the locker room tied, 7-7, at the half.

After the Gators and Sooners swapped possessions to open the second half of the game, the Gators jumped out of the gates, stringing together a 75-yard scoring drive when Harvin found the end zone on a two-yard score with 5:22 to go in the third quarter. Harvin scored a touchdown in the last 15 games he played in, a nation-leading streak. Tebow rushed for 49 yards on the drive and Phillips found the uprights to bring Florida ahead 14-7.

On Oklahoma's next drive, sophomore defensive end Carlos Dunlap got his hands on an Oklahoma punt to record Florida's ninth blocked kick of the season, tying a school record (1995), and marking the third for Dunlap this season.

Following a Gator punt, the Sooners closed the score gap when Bradford connected with Gresham for his second touchdown of the night, an 11-yard pass to cap off a 77-yard drive and tie the score, 14-14, for the second time in the national championship showdown.

After a 27-yard Phillips field goal put Florida ahead 17-14, sophomore safety Ahmad Black kept the momentum in favor of the Gators, intercepting a Bradford pass to give the Gators possession on their own 24 yard-line. The interception marked his seventh of the season for Black and moved him to a third-place tie in the all-time Gator record books.

1993 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

9 FLORIDA 28, 17 ALABAMA 13

December 4, 1993
Legion Field (Attendance: 76,345)
Birmingham, Ala.

Using a solid defense, Florida defeated Alabama 28-13 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. to capture its second official SEC title and earn a berth in the New Year's Day Sugar Bowl in New Orleans, La. The Gators ran their record to 10-2, becoming just the second team in school history to win 10 games. Alabama scored on the first possession of the game, using a Tarrant Lynch one-yard touchdown run and a Michael Proctor PAT to go up 7-0 just 4:47 into the contest. However, the Crimson Tide did not score another touchdown as the Gator defense limited the David Palmer-led Alabama offense to just a pair of field goals the rest of the way. A Terry Dean to Harrison Houston pass and the ensuing PAT by Lou Groza Award winner Judd Davis knotted the game at 7-7 with 1:02 left in the first quarter. Alabama's Proctor hit a 45-yard field goal with 12:02 remaining in the first half and the Crimson Tide lead 10-7. But with only 1:10 left in the second quarter, Florida's Dean lunged into the endzone from two yards out and put the Gators up 14-10, a lead they would not relinquish. The Crimson Tide closed the Gator lead to one when Proctor hit his second field goal of the day, a 25-yarder with 2:14 left in the third quarter, making the score 14-13. On their next possession, Gator punter Shayne Edge, facing fourth-and-eight from his own 37, faked the boot and rambled 20 yards to the Alabama 43-yard line. On the very next play, Dean hit Jack Jackson on a 43-yard touchdown pass and the Gators lead 21-13. An Errict Rhett three-yard run with 11:59 left in the game capped the scoring, giving the Gators the 1993 Southeastern Conference Championship with a 28-13 victory.

1994 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

6 FLORIDA 24, 3 ALABAMA 23

December 3, 1994
Georgia Dome (Attendance: 74,751)
Atlanta, Ga.

Florida captured its second-consecutive SEC title and third league championship in the last four years with a 24-23 heart-pounding victory over No. 3 Alabama (11-1) in the SEC Championship Game. With Florida clinging to a 17-16 fourth quarter lead, Gator quarterback Danny Wuerffel's pass was picked off by Alabama linebacker Dwayne Rudd, who returned it 23 yards for a touchdown to give the Tide a 23-17 lead with 8:56 to play. The Gators respond with one of the most memorable drives in school history. On the second play of the drive, Wuerffel came off the field with a fake limp in a pre-planned signal for strong-armed back-up quarterback Eric Kresser. With Alabama thinking run with Kresser in the contest, the back-up quarterback took his first snap and lofted a 25-yard pass down the left sideline to Ike Hilliard to put UF on the UA 42. After freshman Fred Taylor used a second and third effort to gain two yards on a fourth-and-one play, Wuerffel threw a lateral pass to Reidel Anthony, who gained nine yards. On the next play, head coach Steve Spurrier called for a double-pass, as Wuerffel lateraled it to Doering, who then delivered it to Aubrey Hill for a 20-yard gain to the two. Wuerffel then found Doering in the back of the endzone for the winning touchdown with 5:29 to play. Florida then turned the game over to its determined defense. With Alabama driving for the winning points and near midfield, Gator Fred Weary tipped a Jay Barker pass and Eddie Lake gathered in the pass to seal the victory with less than a minute to play. All told, the Gator defense held Alabama to 297 yards in total offense, while sacking Alabama quarterback Barker five times on the afternoon and recording six tackles for lost yardage.

1995 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2 FLORIDA 34, 24 ARKANSAS 3

December 2, 1995
Georgia Dome (Attendance: 71,325)
Atlanta, Ga.

In front of a primetime national television audience and a sold-out crowd of 71,325, Florida assured itself of a trip to the Fiesta Bowl to play for its first national championship with a 34-3 victory over Arkansas in the fourth edition of the SEC Championship Game, giving the Gators their third-consecutive SEC title. Florida became just the second school to capture three-consecutive outright SEC titles, a feat only accomplished by Alabama several times, the last being from 1977-79. Arkansas opened the game in impressive fashion, driving inside the Florida 20-yard line and eating up more than seven minutes off the clock. But the Gator defense set the tone for the entire game and allowed the Razorbacks to come away with just a 36-yard Todd Latourette field goal. The Gator offense answered back immediately, as it drove 80 yards in seven plays, culminating with a 22-yard scoring toss from Danny Wuerffel to Chris Doering. Just over three minutes later, UF struck again following a Teako Brown interception, this time on a one-yard keeper from Wuerffel. The Gators added a 31-yard field goal from Bart Edmiston midway through the second quarter to take a 17-3 lead into the locker room. The Florida defense came up with perhaps the biggest play of the entire night with just under five minutes left in the third quarter and UF holding a 24-3 edge. With Arkansas threatening on the doorstep, Ben Hanks recovered a fumble by Razorback quarterback Barry Lunney on a thwarted option play and rambled 95 yards untouched to give the Gators an insurmountable lead. It was UF's first defensive touchdown of the season and was one of four forced turnovers for the defense, three of which lead to 17 of UF's points. Arkansas was held to just 299 yards in total offense, including just 142 yards and only nine first downs in the second half. Danny Wuerffel continued to shatter the record books, as he set an SEC and UF record for career touchdown passes with his 75th, a 29-yard pass to Ike Hilliard midway through the third quarter. He also finishes the year with a pass efficiency rating of 178.4, the best single-season rating ever in NCAA history. Hilliard and Doering both eclipse the 1,000-yard receiving mark, becoming the first UF tandem to accomplish that feat.

1996 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

4 FLORIDA 45, 11 ALABAMA 30

December 7, 1996
Georgia Dome (Attendance: 74,132)
Atlanta, Ga.

A week after having their national championship hopes seemingly vanish, Florida defeated Alabama 45-30 in the SEC Championship Game. Florida's win, coupled with Texas' 37-27 upset over Nebraska in the Big 12 Championship Game, put the Gators back in the national championship hunt with a rematch against Florida State in the Nokia Sugar Bowl on January 2nd. The SEC title was Florida's fifth since 1991 and fourth-consecutive crown, the second-best achievement in league history (Alabama won five-straight SEC crowns from 1971-75). Quarterback Danny Wuerffel completed 20-of-35 passes for 401 yards and six touchdowns against the nation's No.1-rated pass defense. Wuerffel's six touchdown passes, which was one more than the Alabama pass defense had surrendered all year in 11 games, tied his SEC record for most touchdown passes in a league game. Reidel Anthony had 11 catches for 171 years and three touchdowns. Anthony finished with a nation's-best and SEC-record setting 18 touchdown grabs on the year. Overall, the Gator offense tallied 470 yards in total offense against an Alabama defensive unit that ranked first in the SEC and sixth in the nation, allowing just 236 yards per game coming into the game. After the Gators fell behind seven-plus minutes into the game, Florida reeled off 24 straight points to build a 17-point cushion nearing the end of the half. A Michael Vaughn touchdown pass from Fred Kitchens with 29 seconds left in the half, coupled with a five-yard run by Dennis Riddle after a blocked UF punt early in the third quarter, cut the UF lead to three at 24-21. The two teams scored three touchdowns in the next 2:05, with UF stealing any Tide momentum after an 85-yard pass from Wuerffel to Jacquez Green to give the Gators a 38-28 lead. Anthony then added his third touchdown catch of the day on the first play of the fourth quarter to give Florida an insurmountable 17-point lead.

2000 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

7 FLORIDA 28, 18 AUBURN 6

December 2, 2000
Georgia Dome (Attendance: 73,427)
Atlanta, Ga.

Florida won its sixth SEC title in the past 10 years as it took advantage of three Auburn turnovers and jumped out to a 21-0 second quarter lead en route to a 28-6 victory over the Tigers before a 73,427 SEC Championship Game crowd at the Georgia Dome. The victory gave Florida a berth in the Sugar Bowl, a school and SEC record eighth consecutive January bowl game appearance and a school record seventh straight win over Auburn. Florida also won at least 10 games for the eighth time in Steve Spurrier's coaching tenure. Florida capitalized on Auburn's three turnovers to take command. On Auburn's first play from scrimmage, Florida's Mike Nattiel recovered a Tiger fumble following a 10-yard pass play. Five plays later, Florida quarterback Rex Grossman found Reche Caldwell in the end zone for a 10-yard touchdown pass and 7-0 lead. Two series later, Florida's Lito Sheppard prevented an Auburn touchdown as he intercepted a Ben Leard pass at the Gator seven yard line. The interception set up Caldwell's second touchdown reception of the game as he caught a Grossman pass, beat a defender and rambled 66 yards for a 14-0 Gator lead. In the second quarter, Nattiel ended another Auburn scoring threat as he recovered his second fumble of the game at UF's 3 yard line. The turnovers set up an eight play, 97-yard scoring drive which ended in Florida's third score- a 27 yard pass from Grossman to Gaffney. In all, Auburn turned the ball over four times (two interceptions, two fumbles) and had to settle for six points on two Damon Duval field goals. Auburn tailback Rudi Johnson, the SEC's leading rusher who entered the game with a 138.2 yards rushing per game average, was held to 47 yards on 17 carries and no touchdowns. Florida's Earnest Graham rushed for a career-high 169 yards (also a SEC championship game record) on 19 carries and quarterback Rex Grossman completed 17 of 26 passes for 238 yards and four touchdowns. Grossman threw for nine touchdowns against Auburn on the year. Reche Caldwell finished with three receptions for 91 yards and two touchdowns and Jabar Gaffney led the Gators with five catches for 84 yards and a touchdown. Gaffney also set the NCAA Division IA freshman receiving yards record and completes the season with 71 receptions for 1,184 yards and 14 touchdown catches- both NCAA Division IA receiving records for a freshman. Lito Sheppard led the Gator defense with two interceptions while Nattiel finished with two fumble recoveries.

2006 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

4 FLORIDA 38, 8 ARKANSAS 28

December 2, 2006
Georgia Dome (Attendance: 73,374)
Atlanta, Ga.

Florida scored second-half touchdowns on a muffed punt, a 67-yard run and a pass from a wide receiver en route to defeating No. 8 Arkansas, 38-28, to win its seventh SEC title. With UF trailing 21-17 late in the third quarter, Arkansas fumbled a punt after trying to field it inside its own five-yard line, allowing Wondy Pierre-Louis to pounce on the ball in the endzone for a touchdown that gave Florida a 24-21 lead. Percy Harvin rushed for a 67-yard touchdown on Florida's first play of the fourth quarter, widening the lead to 31-21. The Hogs quickly cut the margin back to three points, at 31-28, when wide receiver Cedric Washington hit running back Felix Jones for a 29-yard score on a double pass with 12:29 left to play. Florida responded on its next drive, with an eight-play, 80-yard drive that ended in a five-yard touchdown pass from wide receiver Andre Caldwell to tight end Tate Casey to reach the final margin, 38-28. Reggie Nelson and Ryan Smith sealed Florida's win with fourth-quarter interceptions, with Smith's coming in UF's own endzone on Arkansas' final drive. The game got off to a slow start, with Chris Hetland's 33-yard field goal being the only score in the opening quarter. In the second quarter, Jarred Fayson blocked an Arkansas punt, which Tremaine McCollum recovered at the Hogs' nine-yard line. Quarterback Chris Leak plunged into the endzone on the next play to put UF ahead 10-0. Just over four minutes later, Leak threw a 37-yard strike to Harvin, pushing the advantage to 17-0. Leak became Florida's all-time leader in passing yards on the play, breaking Danny Wuerffel's career record of 10,875. The Gators headed into the locker room with a 17-7 lead after Arkansas quarterback Casey Dick hooked up with wideout Marcus Monk on a 48-yard touchdown pass to get the Razorbacks on the board. Arkansas cut the lead to 17-14 on their first drive of the second half behind a two-yard touchdown pass from running back Darren McFadden to Jones. The Hogs took the lead less than four minutes later when defensive lineman Antwain Robinson intercepted Leak and returned the ball 40 yards for the score, giving Arkansas a 21-17 edge. UF retook the lead on Pierre-Louis' special-teams touchdown on the next series and would not trail for the remainder of the contest.

2008 SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

2 FLORIDA 31, 1 ALABAMA 20

December 6, 2008
Georgia Dome (Attendance: 75,892)
Atlanta, Ga.

Florida defeated Alabama in front of a record crowd of 75,892 at the Georgia Dome on Saturday night to claim its eighth SEC title in school history. Florida rushed for 136 yards against an Alabama defense who allowed only 73.6 rushing yards per game - which ranked second in the nation - and scored 31 points on an Alabama defense that allowed just 11.5 points per game (third nationally). The Florida offense drove down the field on its first drive, and junior QB Tim Tebow connected with junior wideout Carl Moore for a 3-yard score. Alabama responded in just two plays, a 64-yard catch by Julio Jones followed by an 18-yard touchdown run from Glen Coffee, tying the game, 7-7. After a three-and-out by the Gator offense, Javier Arenas put Alabama in good field position with a 20-yard punt return. However, the Gator defense forced Alabama to settle for a 30-yard field goal by Leigh Tiffin, giving the Crimson Tide a 10-7 advantage with 3:28 in the first, marking the first time that the Gators trailed in a game since the loss against Ole Miss on Sept. 27, 2008. Following an Alabama fake field goal that was broken up by redshirt sophomore defensive tackle Terron Sanders, junior receiver Riley Cooper had a 51-yard catch to put UF in scoring position. Senior kicker Jonathan Phillips connected on a 19-yard field goal to even the score, 10-10. After forcing a three-and-out from Alabama on the ensuing possession, a 22-yard pass up the seam from Tebow to sophomore tight end Aaron Hernandez gave UF 1st-and-10 from the Alabama five-yard line. Two plays later, Tebow found junior wide receiver David Nelson in the end zone for a five-yard touchdown and a 17-10 lead heading into the locker room at halftime. Alabama opened the second half with a 91-yard, 15-play scoring drive that ate up 6:53 on the clock. Running back Mark Ingram punched it in from two yards out to tie the game, and Alabama took a 20-17 lead following a successful field goal by Tiffin at the end of the third quarter. The Gators answered on the following drive, as freshman running back Jeff Demps rushed for a one-yard score, giving UF a 24-21 lead. The aggressive Gator defense was too much for the Crimson Tide in the final quarter, as junior defensive end Jermaine Cunningham notched a sack to force a three-and-out. Following a punt, UF drove the ball 65 yards to add their final score of the night and increase their lead to 31-20 on a five-yard reception by Cooper. An interception by sophomore cornerback Joe Haden with 1:39 remaining in the game sealed the Gators' SEC title.

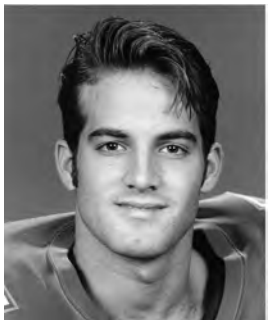
NATIONAL HONORS

Gary Rolle is one of six Gator players honored with the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award.

Danny Wuerffel was chosen as the 1995 and 1996 Verizon Academic All-American of the Year, as well as the recipient of the Draddy Trophy as the nation's premier scholar-athlete.

Brad Culpepper was the recipient of the Draddy Scholarship Trophy in 1991, presented annually by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame to the nation's premier football scholar-athlete.

Bill Kynes was a recipient of a 1977 Rhodes Scholarship. DB Michael Gilmore was a national finalist for that award in 1993.



Michael Gilmore was one of the nation's most honored scholar-athletes during 1993-94. He was a first-team Verizon Academic All-America honoree both of those years, as well as a first-team Hitachi/CFA Scholar-Athlete Team recipient. In 1994, he received the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame Scholar-Athlete Award and the NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship Award.

Gator great Carlos Alvarez (left) was inducted into the Verizon Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1989. Another Gator receiving great, Cris Collinsworth, was inducted into that prestigious organization in 2001.

Florida is the only school in the nation to claim three recipients of the William V. Campbell Trophy, which honors the nation's premier scholar-athlete. Defensive tackle Brad Culpepper won the award in 1991, quarterback Danny Wuerffel garnered the honor in 1996 and quarterback Tim Tebow earned the recognition in 2009.

FERGIE FERGUSON AWARD

The Forrest K. (Fergie) Ferguson Award is given in memory of one of the all-time great athletes at Florida. It goes annually to the senior football player who displays outstanding leadership, character and courage.

Ferguson started at end for the Gators from 1939-41 and wrote pass receiving records which would stand until the pro-style passing era of the 1960s. He was an All-American in 1941. He was also a collegiate state boxing champion and in 1942 won the national AAU javelin championship.

Fergie entered the Army in 1942 as a second lieutenant and was severely wounded in the Normandy Invasion in 1944. He won the Distinguished Service Cross for his heroism under fire. He died of his war wounds 10 years later.

JAMES W. KYNES AWARD

Presented annually to the player who best exemplified the mental and physical toughness and "iron-man" determination Kynes exhibited as a Gator player and in his lifetime. Up until the 2011 season, it was presented to the offensive lineman who best exemplified those traits. Close friends Tom MacDonald and George Levy originated the Kynes Award in 1986. The first recipient was offensive tackle David Williams.

Kynes, Florida's first All-SEC offensive lineman and captain of the 1949 team, was the last Gator football player to play every minute in a game, something he accomplished several times during his career, including in his final game against Alabama. He went on to become the youngest Attorney General in the state of Florida's history at age 37 and was a business and civic leader in Tampa until his death of cancer at age 60 on Oct. 13, 1988.

RAY GRAVES AWARD

Presented annually to the team's Most Valuable Player as selected by a vote of the entire squad. Head Coach Steve Spurrier initiated the award in 1990 in tribute to Graves, who was head coach from 1960-69.

Graves compiled a 70-31-4 record at the Gator helm, then the record for most wins (70) in school history for a head coach. He led Florida to winning records in nine of his 10 seasons at the helm, including nine or more wins three times. Graves' teams also appeared in five bowl games, posting a 4-1 record. He coached Florida's first Heisman Trophy winner in Spurrier, who captured college football's most prestigious honor in 1966.

FLORIDA FIELD TIMELINE

1906-11
When the Gator football program started in 1906 under Head Coach James Forsythe, prior to the existence of The Swamp, Florida played home football games in Gainesville at the "ball park field," which is now located on the old Arlington Street bordering the Utility Center. The Gators compiled an 18-1-1 record from 1906-11.

1912-29
From 1912-29, Florida football was played at Fleming Field on the UF campus. Situated just north of the current Ben Hill Griffin Stadium, the Gators went 46-6-1 on Fleming Field prior to playing on Florida Field.

April 16, 1930
Construction begins on original Florida Field.

October 27, 1930
Construction completed on original Florida Field (capacity 21,769). The original stadium consisted of the lower half of the current stadium.

November 8, 1930
Dedication of Florida Field as sellout crowd of 21,769 watches Florida vs. Alabama. The legendary Red Barber, a UF student, called the play-by-play.

October 13, 1934
Florida Field dedicated to memory of servicemen who died in World War I.

December 16, 1949
Plans drawn to add 11,200 seats to west stands. Expansion completed for 1950 season, bringing total capacity, including temporary bleachers, to 40,116.

September 23, 1950
The first night game is played at Florida Field vs. The Citadel.

December 1965
Construction started on the 10,000-seat addition on the east side, bringing permanent seating to 56,164. Also, temporary bleachers were moved into the south end zone for total capacity of 62,800 during 1966 season.

April 1971
Artificial surface installed.

August 1982
Completion of south end zone, bringing capacity to 72,000. Athletic training center, skybox tower and modern press box also involved in this project.

September 9, 1989
Football stadium named Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field during dedication ceremonies. The stadium is named in honor of Ben Hill Griffin Jr., a life-long Gator supporter and fan who had been extremely benevolent and generous to several sectors at the University of Florida.

June 30, 1990

September 1991
Construction completed on new north end zone. Capacity stood at 83,000, making Florida Field one of the eight largest on-campus collegiate football stadiums in the nation and the largest stadium in the state of Florida. The north end zone addition cost $17 million, but involved no state funding.

November 30, 1991
Ben Hill Griffin Stadium became the site of the largest football crowd (collegiate or professional) in state of Florida history (85,461 vs. Florida St.). During the 1991 and 1992 seasons, the stadium was the site of the 12 largest crowds in state history.

October 12, 1991
The official dedication of the new north end zone was held as Florida played Tennessee. Red Barber, who called the original dedication game in 1930, was UF's special guest of honor.

End of 1991 Season
Head Coach Steve Spurrier tagged Ben Hill Griffin Stadium at Florida Field "The Swamp." Spurrier says, "The Swamp is where Gators live. We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Prior to 1998 Season
Florida completed a $5 million renovation of the Ben Hill Griffin Training Complex in the south end zone, making the facility one of the nation's elite.

Prior to 2003 Season
Construction was completed on a two-year, $50 million stadium expansion/renovation that included the addition of 2,900 luxury club seats, expanded press level, renovated and enlarged Bull Gator Deck, enlarged President's Suite and 34 additional suites funded by private support from Gator Boosters and fans.

Prior to 2004 Season
A high-resolution video board highlighted the brand new Daktronics scoreboard in the north end of Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. In addition, a state-of-the-art sound system was installed throughout the stadium. The project cost was $2 million.

February 2007
Construction to the southwest area of the stadium began, including renovation to the football offices, weight room, training room and team areas.

August 2008
The $28 million in construction and renovation to the James W. "Bill" Heavener Football Complex was completed, including an expansion of the strength and conditioning room, a new Gator Room, renovation to the football offices and a trophy complex with a tribute to Gator greats.

August 2009
Prior to the 2009 season, construction was completed on a $5.6 million project installing Daktronics HD-16 high resolution screens to replace the old north and south end zone scoreboards.

April 2011
Statues of Florida's three Hesiman winners -- Steve Spurrier, Danny Wuerffel and Tim Tebow -- were unveiled on the west side of the stadium at halftime of the spring game.

Prior to 2012 Season
Renovations to the West Concourse resulted in enhanced restroom facilities, better overall lighting, improved crowd circulation and wider concessions with more points of sale, including new food items not previously offered in the stadium.

DR. J. BERNARD MACHEN

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

In more than a decade as president of the University of Florida, Bernie Machen has grown and enhanced every aspect of the university while putting it on a path to rise among the best public universities in the nation.

President Machen has expanded UF's research operation, elevated its educational programs and increased access for students from a diversity of economic backgrounds. He has bolstered the university's commitment to innovation, grown its endowment, and led a noted universitywide sustainability initiative.

Additionally, in 2013, President Machen launched UF on the nearly $1 billion UF Preeminence Plan. The plan will fill new positions for at least 100 faculty members, establish more than 100 new endowed chairs and professorships, and upgrade research and education facilities across campus. Focused on bringing on board midcareer and eminent faculty, the new plan is supported by $150 million in combined state-university dollars and an $800 million fundraising campaign.

Other milestones of President Machen's tenure include:

• Growth in annual university research funding from $470 million in 2003-04 to $641 million in fiscal year 2013.

• More than 3.1 million square feet in new construction on campus, including more than 628,000 square feet of new research space.

• Completion of UF's $1.7 billion capital campaign, at the time the sixth-largest public university campaign in history.

• The Machen Florida Opportunity Scholars Program, enabling the enrollment of more than 2,900 low-income students who are the first in their families to attend college, with about 1,500 graduates so far.

• Development of the 40-acre public private partnership known as Innovation Square and creation of the Innovation Hub technology incubator, now housing more than two dozen UF spinoffs.

• Creation of the Bob Graham Center for Public Service, Claude D. Pepper Older Americans Independence Center, the UF Water Institute and other key university institutes and centers.

President Machen also significantly strengthened UF's hospital and health science research operations, bringing together the UF Health Science Center and Shands Hospital under UF Health. He has added several major new medical research and care facilities, including the Biomedical Sciences Building, the Clinical and Translational Research Building and the UF Health Cancer Center. And he launched UF's first major medical research facility outside Gainesville, the UF Research and Academic Center at Lake Nona's Medical City near Orlando.

His educational enhancements include the spring-summer Innovation Academy for entrepreneurially-minded undergraduates; "What is The Good Life?", the first class in a new undergraduate curriculum; and the launch of UF Online, one of the first programs in the nation to offer four-year fully online undergraduate degrees.

Prior to his arrival at UF, President Machen served for six years as president of the University of Utah, where he is credited with expanding the university's health sciences program, stabilizing the university's finances and bolstering diversity.

From 1995 to 1997, he was provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at the University of Michigan, and from 1989 until 1995, he served as dean of Michigan's School of Dentistry. From 1983 to 1989, he was professor and associate dean at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill's School of Dentistry.

President Machen is a past president of the American Association of Dental Schools. He also served as a member of the board of trustees of the Salt Lake Olympic Organizing Committee. His additional positions in national higher education leadership include serving as a member of the National Security Higher Education Advisory Board; chairing the board of directors of the National Campus Compact and serving as president of the executive committee of the Southeastern Conference and chair of the Southeastern Conference Academic Consortium.

A native of Greenwood, Miss., President Machen grew up in St. Louis. After attending Vanderbilt University for his undergraduate studies, he earned his doctor of dental surgery degree from St. Louis University and his master's degree in pediatric dentistry and doctorate in educational psychology from the University of Iowa. He and his wife, Chris, a former neonatal intensive care nurse, have two sons, a daughter, and four grandchildren.

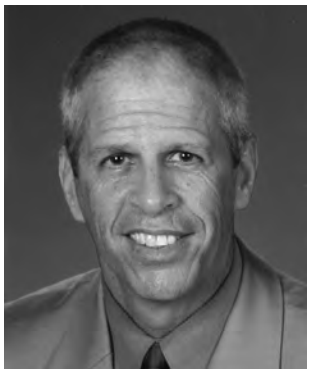
JEREMY N. FOLEY

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS



Jeremy N. Foley, who has handled virtually every aspect of the University of Florida's $103.3 million athletic program during his athletic administrative career - which began with an internship in the Gator Ticket Office in 1976 - was named UF's Director of Athletics in March of 1992. He is the second-longest tenured athletic director among Bowl Championship series Conference schools.

Foley, 61, brings a passionate, top-to-bottom team approach to the top athletic post at the University of Florida. Foley's philosophy involves the continued building of a comprehensive athletic program, with the goal of having the overall UF program ranked as the top athletic program in the nation.

As chief financial officer for the University Athletic Association (UAA), Foley has spearheaded a number of capital improvement projects in the athletic department. The project lists includes two major expansions of the football stadium, a multipurpose athletic fieldhouse, new facilities for tennis, track & field, soccer, baseball, golf, gymnastics, softball and swimming. Foley also played a role in the construction of the academic advising center on the University of Florida campus, which serves UF students and Gator student-athletes, in the early 1990's and assisted in funding the renovation of the Stephen C. O'Connell Center in 2011. A project that enhanced the football experience for Gator student-athletes, staff and visitors - was completed in July of 2008 and received platinum certification from the Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) Green Building Ration System, the highest ranking available. It was the first building in Florida and the first athletic facility in the nation to achieve platinum status. A 1,500 seat-stadium lacrosse facility - offering fans a great view of this fast-paced sport – was completed prior to the inaugural season in the spring of 2010. A complete renovation of the O'Connell Center and upgrading the Academic Advising Center are current projects in the planning stages.

Foley's commitment to the overall athletic program includes a plan of increased opportunities for women, as three women's sports have been added under his tenure – soccer, softball and, most recently, lacrosse.

Also, in an era when the NCAA estimates 90 percent of Division I schools are losing money on intercollegiate athletics, the University of Florida Athletic Association has contributed more than $75.9 million since 1990 to help fund University of Florida academic endeavors.

Florida has been equally successful on the field of play and in the classroom during Foley's administrative tenure. The Florida athletic program has ranked among the nation's top 10 for 31-straight years (1983-84 – 2013-14) and among the top five for 15 of the last 22 years, according to national all-sport rankings. Florida was among the nation's top four schools in each of the last six years, including taking runner-up in the last three. Florida has also won the men's Capital One Cup in 2011 and 2012, while the women's program claimed its first Capital One Cup in 2014.

UF became the first program in collegiate history to own both the men's basketball and football national titles in the same calendar year, after capturing crowns in 2006. The men's basketball team then became the first repeat champions in their sport in 15 years after cutting the nets down again in 2007.

Foley is the only athletic director in Division I history to supervise a program that has won multiple national titles in football (1996, 2006, 2008) and men's basketball (2006, 2007). Overall, 24 Gator teams have been crowned national champions under his watch. Florida has won a league-best 15 national championships since 2006, including multiple national championship in each of the last five years. UF has captured 119 SEC Championships under Foley and the lacrosse team has captured four straight American Lacrosse Conference Championships. Florida has swept the Halifax Media Group Southeastern Conference All-Sports Title 14 times under Foley, a feat no other school in the SEC has every accomplished.

UF's commitment in the classroom is equally impressive. Under Foley, UF student-athletes have been honored 100 times as Academic All-Americans. The University of Florida has more than 1,800 SEC Academic Honor Roll honorees in the last decade.

The Gator athletic coaching family, which Foley had a large part in assembling, has collected 100 conference Coach of-the-Year awards during the last 24 years. The Gators had an amazing 10 coaches earn the league coach of the year honors during the 2012-13 year. Equally impressive is that 10 UF student athletes won their respective conference player of the year in 2012-13.

Florida student-athletes have remained involved in the community and beyond. A total of 345 UF student athletes participated in 4,035 hours of community service in 2013-14, partnering with 25 schools, 12 civic organizations and 20 non-profit organizations. The "Goodwill Gators" program was recognized by the National Consortium of Academics and Sports and received the 1998 Outreach and Service Award and Florida was honored with a White House commendation for volunteerism in 1994.

Foley was named the Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal National Athletic Director of the Year in June of 2006 and the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame awarded him the 2007 John L. Toner Award. The Toner Award is designed to honor and acknowledge outstanding athletics directors who have demonstrated superior administrative abilities especially in the area of college football.

Foley also served on the NCAA Division I Management Council from 1997-2002.

Foley was named Honorary Alumnus of the University of Florida by the Florida Alumni Association Board of Directors in October of 2000.

Born in Washington, D.C., but calling New London, N.H., home, Foley received his undergraduate degree in 1974 from Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y., where he also coached and scouted for the tradition-rich lacrosse program following graduation. He went on to earn his master's degree in sports administration from Ohio University in 1976 and then joined the Gator athletic program as an intern in the ticket office. In 1995, the Ohio Graduate School presented Foley with the school's Distinguished Alumni Award. The Ohio University Alumni Association also awarded Foley with the Medal of Merit in September of 2008.

In 2008, the Hobart Alumni Association presented Foley with the Medal of Excellence, their highest honor, for outstanding achievements as Athletic Director at the University of Florida, which has brought honor and distinction to his alma mater.

The Holderness School, a small, private, college preparation school in Plymouth, New Hampshire, presented Foley, class of 1970, with their 2007 Distinguished Alumni Award.

Foley was named the U.S. Sports Academy Carl Maddox Sports Management Award winner in October of 2009. The Award is named in honor of the former athletic director of Louisiana State University and Mississippi State University, Corbet Award and United States Sports Academy Board of Trustees member, and is given annually to an individual for his or her contributions to the growth and development of sport enterprise through effective management practices.

An avid sports and Boston Red Sox fan, Foley ran the Boston Marathon in a 3:39.51 clip in April of 1995 and completed the course in 3:28.10 in 1998. A dog lover and proud owner of one Labrador retriever, he is involved with the Humane Society and local charities.

GOODWILL GATORS

Mission Statement

The mission of the University Athletic Association's Goodwill Gators Community Outreach Program is to foster citizenship between administration, coaches, student-athletes and the greater Gainesville community. Through volunteerism, Goodwill Gators:

- strengthens our commitment to greater Gainesville and the surrounding communities.
- encourages citizenship, civic virtues and how one should behave as part of a community.
- enhances the personal development of student-athletes.

HISTORY

With the accolades and benefits received by student-athletes come responsibilities. Student-athletes have a responsibility to serve the community that supports them as they grow physically, mentally and emotionally. The Goodwill Gators program understands and meets the need to be involved within the community by participating in weekly and annual service projects.

The Goodwill Gators program provides student-athletes with quality volunteer opportunities that allow them to give back to the community. In turn, the community may utilize the Goodwill Gator student-athletes as positive role models, eager volunteers and motivational speakers.

The Goodwill Gators program has been recognized nationally by the National Consortium of Academics and Sports (1998, 2000-11) for its outreach and service commitment to the community. Student-athletes have demonstrated a high commitment to the Goodwill Gators program making consistent appearances with several organizations.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Gator Literacy

Designed to promote reading and literacy in Alachua County. Once a week, student-athletes read stories with children during their class time.

Gator Club

The Gator Club program is a partnership with the Shands Medical Plaza. On Wednesdays and some Fridays, members of the UF football team visit with the pediatric patients at the Medical Plaza.

Stephen Foster Intramurals

The children of Stephen Foster Elementary look forward to Tuesdays, when the Gators come to play intramural activities with them.

Gator Tracks

Gator Tracks is an "angel tree"-type program that takes place during the holiday season. Local elementary school teachers provide the Gators with children's first names and shoe sizes, after recognizing that they are in need of new sneakers.

Swamp Field Trip

A program that started in the spring of 2009, the "Swamp Field Trip" is available to local middle schools as a reward for their students who achieve good grades, are involved in community service, have had major improvements, etc. The students have the opportunity to speak with players and have a special tour of the football facility given by the players.

Kids Kicking Cancer

Kids Kicking Cancer, Inc. is a nationwide program to help kids get through their serious illness and chronic pain by the use of martial arts to combat pain, fear and stress. There is a group in Gainesville that works with Shands Arts in Medicine to meet and practice martial arts at Shands Hospital. They visited UF to help show some football players the ways they combat their pain, stress and fear in hopes of teaching the football players that they can use this to fight their own stress, pain and fear. After the children taught the team members martial arts, the football players took them on a tour of the locker room and played catch on the football field.

WALK-ONS

For years, the University of Florida football program has encouraged and fostered a walk-on program that gives many young men each year the opportunity to live their dream of playing major college football. Many former walk-ons have eventually earned scholarships (48 alone since 1990), earned starting positions, gained All-SEC and All-America honors and even eventually played professional football. Their eventual success has become a cherished part of the Gator football tradition and heritage.

- Fourteen former Gator walk-ons have gone on to play professional football: LS James Smith, DB Hagood Clarke, DB Allen Trammell, DB Bruce Vaughan, LB James Harrell, WR Lee McGriff, PK John James, PK David Posey, QB Kerwin Bell, DB Louis Oliver, WR Chris Doering, TE Tremayne Allen, PK Jeff Chandler and FB Billy Latsko.
- Former walk-on Louis Oliver was selected in the first round of the 1989 NFL Draft by Miami. He also earned first-team All-America honors in 1987 and 1988 and was one of three finalists for the Jim Thorpe Defensive Back of the Year Award in 1988.
- Former walk-on John James went on to earn All-Pro honors as a punter in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons.
- Former walk-on Kerwin Bell earned SEC Player of the Year honors in 1984 and completed his career in 1987 as the greatest statistical passer in SEC history. Bell became a prominent Heisman Trophy candidate in 1987.
- When Bobby Raymond completed his career in 1984, the former walk-on's name appeared in the NCAA place-kicking records in five separate categories.
- Former walk-on wide receiver Gary Rolle was named Academic All-America and winner of the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award in 1984.
- Twenty-six members of the 1991 Southeastern Conference championship team, the first official SEC title in school history, were walk-ons.
- One hundred and forty-three (143) Gator walk-ons have earned Academic All-SEC honors.
- Former walk-on Judd Davis was named the 1993 Lou Groza National Place-Kicker of the Year. He was also named a first-team All-American that season and completed his UF career in 1994 with 225 points, then the top total in school history.
- Former walk-on Chris Doering completed his Gator career in 1995 with 31 career touchdown catches, the top total in SEC and UF history. Doering was named second-team All-America, as well as first-team All-SEC, in 1995 after grabbing 17 touchdown receptions, the best seasonal mark in SEC and UF history.
- Jeff Chandler joined the Gator program as a walk-on in 1998 and by the time he departed after the 2001 season, he had become UF's all-time leading scorer (368 points) and field-goal maker (67). He was a two-time semifinalist for the Groza Award, a two-time first-team All-SEC choice and a second-team All-American in 2001.
- The 1985 Gator team that finished 9-1-1 and fifth in the final national rankings had 18 prominent players that originally joined the program as walk-ons.
- Seven former Gator walk-ons – WR Lee McGriff, WR Chris Doering, DE Preston Kendrick, PK David Posey, QB Kerwin Bell, DB Louis Oliver and PK Jeff Chandler – have gone on to earn first-team All-SEC honors.
- The 2006 BCS National Championship squad featured 36 walk-ons, including five student-athletes that earned scholarships.

NCAA RULES EDUCATION PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETES

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

You are a "prospective student-athlete" when you start ninth-grade classes. Before the ninth grade, you become a prospective student-athlete if a college gives you (or your relatives or friends) any financial aid or other benefits that the college does not provide to prospective students generally.

You become a "recruited prospective student-athlete" at a particular college if any coach or representative of the college's athletics interest (booster or representative) approaches you (or any member of your family) about enrolling and participating in athletics at that college. Activities by coaches or boosters that cause you to become a recruited prospective student-athlete are:

- providing you with an official visit;
- visiting you or any other member of your family anywhere other than the college campus;
- placing more than one telephone call to you or any other member of your family; or
- signing a National Letter of Intent or a University of Florida written offer of athletically related financial aid.

ACADEMICS AND AMATEURISM

It is extremely important for you to give maximum academic effort as you conclude your high school attendance while maintaining your amateur status before entering college. To practice or play during your freshman year, you must meet the provisions of NCAA Bylaw 14.3, which include: (a) graduating from high school, (b) achieving a minimum cumulative grade point average in 16 core courses and achieving a corresponding minimum combined score on the SAT, or a minimum sum total score on the ACT as determined by the NCAA Eligibility Center. You must also meet the provisions of Bylaw 12.3, which include verification that you have retained your amateur status prior to entering college. The NCAA Eligibility Center must certify the initial-eligibility and amateur status of all incoming freshman student-athletes. Therefore, you must register with the Eligibility Center as soon as possible. For online web access contact: www.eligibilitycenter.org.

INDUCEMENTS

All institutional staff members and boosters are prohibited from offering or providing any financial aid or other benefits to you or your relatives or friends other than those expressly permitted by NCAA regulations. Specifically prohibited inducements include:

- providing cash or loans in any amount, or
- signing or co-signing for a loan
- providing gifts of any kind, including clothing or equipment
- providing special discounts for goods or services
- providing free or reduced housing/rent
